

ABOUT NCGE

The National Centre for Guidance in Education is an agency of the Department of Education and Skills, with responsibility to develop and support quality guidance provision in the education sector as part of lifelong learning in accordance with national and international best practice and to inform the policy of the Department in the field of guidance.

In support of the work of guidance counsellors in education

NCGE:

www.ncge.ie

- develops guidance materials
- provides information and advice on good practice
- supports innovation and pilot projects
- develops and organises continuing professional development
- conducts research on guidance provision and practice
- informs the Department of Education and Skills on policy development
- collaborates with all stakeholders to ensure good quality guidance practice
- represents Ireland at meetings of the EU Commission and other networks

NCGE also host the Euroguidance Centre Ireland. Part of a network of centres linking together the Careers Guidance systems in Europe. Euroguidance Ireland helps guidance counsellors and individuals to better understand the mobility opportunities available to European citizens.